MISS MARGARET D. FORBES

Weddings

Driver-Winton.

A wedding of much interest to their many friends was that of Miss Sarah Jane Driver, the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Louis Driver, to Mr. Vernon Pearce Winton, of Chattanooga, Tenn., which was quietly solemnized in the home of the bride's parents, on Central avenue, on Tuesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, the Rev. Thomas S. Potts officiating.

Palm, ferns and cut flowers were effectively used in the decoration in the room where the ceremony took place, the arch where the young couple stood being banked with palms and ferns with a touch of color in the pink blossoms which were arranged in tall floor vases.

An excellent program of music was rendered on the piano by Miss Abbie McChesney, and Mrs. Harry Brennan sang "I Love You" and "At Evening."

The bride wore a model of white satin beaded in pearls with touches of lace and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies.

Miss Elsie Driver was her sister's maid of honor and was gowned in light crepe over satin with trimmings of lace and French flowers. Her lower were Russell roses in an arm bouquet.

Miss Mary Williams, of New Orleans, wearing pink crepe over satin with trimmings of French roses and carrying Russell roses, was Miss Driver's bridesmaid.

Mr. Farley Winton was his brother's best man, and Mr. Spencer Driver, brother of the bride, served as groomsmen.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held for the bride's relatives and a few close friends after which Mr. and Mrs. Winton left for a bridal trip and will later be at home in Chattanooga.

Walker-Kirby.

Grace church was the scene of a pretty wedding very quietly solemnized on Tuesday afternoon, when Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gordon Walker gave in marriage their daughter, Dorothy, to Mr. Joseph Brooks Kirby, of Tunica, Miss.

Wright, rector of Grace church, officiated in the presence of only the immediate members of the two families.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. Kirby and his bride left for an Eastern trip, the bride traveling in a handsome tailored suit of brown velvet with hat and accessories in harmony.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby will be at home in Memphis, where both have innumerable friends.

Abbey-Howard.

A wedding of special interest in Memphis social circles will take place in Tunica, Miss., at 6 o'clock, when Mrs. William Abbey will give in marriage her daughter, Willie, to Mr. Percy Howard, of Memphis.

The Rev. T. T. Williams, of the Presbyterian church, in Tunica, officiating. The ceremony will take place in the home of the bride's mother which has been elaborately decorated for the occasion.

The bride, whose hand will be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Robert Irwin Abbey, will wear an exquisite wedding gown of ivory chiffon velvet with draperies of rose point lace. The court train of velvet, which is five yards in length, is fashioned in two points caught at the shoulders, leaving a V-shaped opening revealing the real lace of the bodice.

The draperies of the gown are caught at the left side with a cluster of orange blossoms in shower effect. The white tulle veil falls from a coronet of orange blossoms and rose point lace.

The matrons of honor are Mrs. Hugh Lucas Fontaine, formerly Miss Mary Abbey Leatherman, of Memphis, and Mrs. Sieton Driver, of Memphis, formerly Miss Zella Lowe, of Tunica. Mrs. Fontaine will wear a lovely frock of white lace, and Mrs. Driver will be gowned in blue tulle.

The maid of honor, Miss Frances Dockery, of Memphis, will wear a beautiful Lucile model of orchid chiffon and lace and the bridesmaids will be charmingly gowned, Miss Anne Leatherman, of Memphis, and Miss Elizabeth Lowe, of Tunica, wearing pink tulle and lace.

Mr. Howard will be escorted by his best man, Mr. R. P. Woodson, Jr., and as groomsmen, Messrs. Todd Brown and Robert Andrews.

Among the pretty children numbered in the wedding party will be the little ribbon bearers: Misses Pauline Mitchell, Marjorie Mangum Bailey and Mary Powell Abbey and Masters Bob Drayson, John Tait Owens, Jr., and Irwin Abbey, Jr. Little Miss Nancy Elizabeth Abbey will serve as ring bearer.

Among the Memphians who will be present at the ceremony are Mrs. S. R. Leatherman, Miss Anne Leatherman, Mr. William Dockery and Miss Frances Dockery, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas Fontaine, Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Fontaine, Mrs. Alston Boyd, Mrs. T. B. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. James Sieton Driver, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis Stephens and Mrs. Carroll Westbrook.

CALVARY CHURCH SOCIETIES PLAN TO HONOR THEIR RECTOR

The members of the various societies of Calvary Episcopal church have planned to honor their rector, the Rev. C. F. Haisdel, Mrs. Haisdel and family, with a brilliant reception in the parish house on Thursday evening, Oct. 23, at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Haisdel came to Memphis in June from Helena, Ark., where he was greatly beloved, and has endeavored himself to the members of his large parish here. At the time of his coming many members of the church were absent from the city, but these have returned and the reception will be in the nature of a welcome to the rector and the members of his interesting family.

The clergy of other denominations as well as those of the Episcopal church will be among the specially invited guests of the occasion.

An excellent program of music will be rendered on the piano by Miss Abbie McChesney, and Mrs. Harry Brennan sang "I Love You" and "At Evening."

The bride wore a model of white satin beaded in pearls with touches of lace and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies.

Miss Elsie Driver was her sister's maid of honor and was gowned in light crepe over satin with trimmings of lace and French flowers. Her lower were Russell roses in an arm bouquet.

Miss Mary Williams, of New Orleans, wearing pink crepe over satin with trimmings of French roses and carrying Russell roses, was Miss Driver's bridesmaid.

Mr. Farley Winton was his brother's best man, and Mr. Spencer Driver, brother of the bride, served as groomsmen.

CLUBDOM

CLUB PRESIDENT OFFERS UNIQUE PLAN TO MEMBERS

Mrs. E. G. Williamson, who is one of Memphis' most progressive women and is at the head of a most progressive club, has arranged to have the presidential election returns detailed at the club on election night, Nov. 2, when the club will be thrown open for an informal gathering of the members and their escorts. It is the intention to make it a gala occasion, an evening of good fellowship, the election results being taken soundly.

Women are generally good losers and those who see their candidate defeated may rejoice in the good fortune of their fellow members. Light refreshments will be served during the evening.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY BRILLIANT SUCCESS.

The card party given on Tuesday afternoon by members of the art department of the Nineteenth Century club for the benefit of their picture fund, proved a brilliant success.

The clubrooms, which had just been renovated and beautified for the opening of the season, had been further adorned with a profusion of gorgeous autumn blossoms, a golden color note prevailing.

Several hundred guests, participated in the spirited game of bridge, which was the diversion of the afternoon, exquisite materia handkerchiefs being awarded to the winners at each table.

At the conclusion of the game tea was served at four daintily appointed tea tables.

Mrs. Frederick O. Gamble, chairman, was assisted in entertaining by the members of her department, and the club president, Mrs. E. G. Williamson, and the two ladies were charmingly presided over by Misses Roland Smith, Daniel Grant, P. P. Williams, Walter Lane Smith, Robert Caldwell, Thomas Watkins, A. B. Hilderson, J. Shepherd, Julius Goodman, Miss Estelle Lake and Mrs. T. Cathey and the members of the hospitality committee.

Salon Circle.

The Salon circle held its first meeting of the season on Monday afternoon at the Y. M. H. A. building with Mrs. Myer Gattman, the vice-president, presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. C. Eisenhaid.

An anniversary banquet will be given by the circle on November 5 at the Hotel Plaza. An interesting program which had been arranged by Mrs. Ben Goodman was rendered by Misses Alice Woods, Lucile Ham and Prof. J. L. Higbaw. The speakers for the afternoon were Misses Eugene Greener, H. C. Oppenheimer, Leon Tumin and Leo Strauss.

Nineteenth Century Club.

At the request of a number of young Memphis women, who on account of business engagements during the day can not take advantage of the various departments of the Nineteenth Century club, Mrs. E. G. Williamson, president of the club, consented to organize a department with two night meetings each week, providing the members of the department numbered as many as fifty. A meeting was held on Monday evening, Mrs. Williamson presiding, when preliminary plans were made for the

DISPUTE OVER LEAGUE SHOWS WOMEN ARE POSTED ON ISSUES

Mrs. George Bass, at left, and Mrs. Arthur L. Livermore.

That the women are going "to the bottom of things" in politics and are already familiar with the big issues in the fall campaign is shown daily. A clash between Mrs. Arthur L. Livermore, chairman of the New York state Republican women's committee, and Mrs. George Bass, national organization of the department, Miss Kate Lucas, daughter of Mrs. J. H. Lucas, who has for a number of years been one of the active workers in the club, was chosen chairman.

The vice-chairman and committee members to be selected at a second meeting to be held on Friday evening. It was suggested that the department make a study of English literature, current topics, political economy and Spanish.

The meetings will be held from 7 to 10 o'clock and it is probable that one evening of each week will be of a social nature, with a program and informal discussion.

Lauderdale Association.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of Lauderdale school will be held on Friday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock at the school. All women in the community have been invited to attend.

Bargain Sales

In any other line of wearing apparel the careful shopper is, and properly so, always on the alert to take advantage of the bargain.

In Footwear, however, it is dangerous. One may purchase a suit, a dress, a hat, a shirt or shirtwaist, or any other article, and if it is not a perfect fit it can be altered, or in any event, no injury results. With Footwear it is different. A shoe that is of improper or inferior construction may result in a life-long injury, and even a few hours' wear may accomplish such a result.

It is essential, therefore, that in the selection of Footwear one should know that the fit is perfect, and never be misled by so-called bargains to purchase a shoe that is not a proper fit. Zellner's salesmen are all expert fitters, held responsible for correct fit, and all sizes are marked in plain figures. It is all open and above board, and backed by a reputation of half a century. And yet Zellner's offers prices that are wonderful. Included among the large variety of remarkable numbers, each perfect in its way, are Patent Leather Oxfords at $2.50, $4, $5, $6 and $8.

Silver

Like Friends Should Possess the Quality of Endurance

Silver, like friends, should be selected for its qualities, for, like friends, good silver has qualities that wear well with time.

For instance, some spoons and forks have an awkward feel in the hand, while others seem to possess a grace and fitness that grows with usage. This is because they have been fashioned right—the silver in them so distributed as to give correct balance and weight at points where the wear comes.

Our flat silver is all thus skillfully made and is artistic and durable, and in that perfect good taste which always makes it an acceptable and appreciated gift.

Our artistic engraving—attractive boxing—safe and prompt delivery adds value to your gift.
